BROADWAY COMEDY #3

"SHOULD BRIDES MARRY"

JAMES WEST
ALICE WINTER

EDDIE BARRY
VERA REYNOLDS

Marriage to James West and Alice Winter looks impossible because though he and Alice love each other very dearly, there is not a cent between them. And when Jimmy approaches the girl's father, the old man goes black in the face and swears that nobody shall marry his girl until he can provide her with a home as good as her father owns. It is a beautiful home. Jimmy and a confederate devise a scheme. Jimmy dresses as a girl and makes love to the old man while a band of burglars denudes the home of its furniture. When the old man discovers how cleverly the young man has provided his daughter with a home he relents and the young couple is united.
